INSTRUCTIONS FOR CREATING AN ACCOUNT FOR THE EHC ELECTRONIC RELEASE OF INFORMATION REQUEST WEBSITE

If you are a walk in at one of our physical locations to request your records and you choose the electronic delivery method, please ask the receptionist for detailed instructions on how to create an account for the website.

You can also create an account for the website by going to the Emory Healthcare website at www.emoryhealthcare.org and following these steps:

Click on the "Patient & Visitor" tab.

Click on "Medical Records" on the left side of the screen.

Click on the link to create an account for the "EHC Electronic Release of Information Request Website". Upon creating an account, you will have the ability to request your records electronically and receive them electronically.

*PLEASE NOTE: If you are requesting your records electronically from multiple Emory facilities, you must submit a separate request for each facility location. However, you only need to create an account once.
